Does the definition and usage of the word “Anointing” used in this passage give you a better understanding of what John is saying to us?

What understanding have you gained?

Answer:

Read The Following Passage

I John 2:15-25 NKJV

Compare the NKJV and the NLT Translation

[1Jo 2:20 NKJV] But you have an anointing (Unction – KJV) from the Holy One, and you know all things.

[1Jo 2:20 NLT] But you are not like that, for the Holy One has given you his Spirit, and all of you know the TRUTH.

I John 2:15-25 NLT

[1Jo 2:21 NLT] So I am writing to you not because you don't know the TRUTH but because you know the difference between TRUTH and lies.

I John 2:15-21 NKJV

Anointing = TRUTH

I John 2:15-21 NKJV

Truth = POWER

The TRUTH IS
Jesus Has Forgiven My Sins

POWER OVER DEATH

The TRUTH IS
Jesus Has Healed My Body

POWER OVER SICKNESS

The TRUTH IS

Jesus Has Filled Me With The Holy Spirit

POWER OVER MY FLESH

Tell Somebody The TRUTH
Be ANOINTED
